Bombay.

Respected sir,

I, the undersigned Marigowda Basawantagowda Channapagowdar, LL.B., pleader Gadag, beg to lay before your honour the following few lines for your favourable consideration.

I am a Lingayet by caste. I am 39 years old. I com from a loyal Watandar family of Ron Taluka District Dharw I have passed my LL.B. Examination in 1927 scoring nearly 61 per cent marks. I have no failure in my whole career. I began to practice at Dharwar in 1927. I was appointed as honorary assistant to the Government pleader Dharwar in 1929. On account of unavoidable circumstances I was forced to shift from Dharwar to Gadag. I have been practicing at Gadag since 1931. I was appointed as Sub - Government pleader at Gadag in 1939. During the period of three years my work as Sub-Government pleader is to the entire satisfaction of the District Govt., pleader and Gadag IInd Class Sub-Judge and Gadag First Class Magistra I was entrusted with some criminal cases on behalf of Gov by the District Magistrate and District Judge. I have conducted them efficiently. I have attached herewith the certificates of officers under whom I have served as Govt pleader. My term of period expires in the month of November 1942. So I request humbly your honour to re-appoint me as Sub Government pleader Gadag, Dist. Dharwar.

For this act of kindness I will be very much obliged to your honour.

Gadag.
18-9-1942.

Your obedient servant
M B. Channapagowdar
Sub-Govt pleader Gadag
